

iQM Agency Plus Program – Underwriting Guidelines

Underwriting Philosophy

Impac takes a common sense approach to underwriting a borrower's creditworthiness to determine the willingness and ability to repay the loan. Each applicant has a different situation and each loan is weighed on its own merits. Our goal is to help good borrowers with their financing needs while mitigating risk for the company. The iQM programs are high risk loans. Impac will only approve loans for which the company has a reasonable belief that the borrower has the ability to repay the subject loan. This reasonable belief is based upon information provided by or independently verified by an independent third party. Any irregularity in borrower profile, documentation provided, or property used to support the debt may be cause for denial of the loan.

Program Highlights

Designed for high credit quality borrowers who are seeking:

- Loan amounts up to $3 million
- An Interest Only feature
- Conforming or high balance loans when they own multiple financed properties
- DTI up to 50% (see Qualifying Rate and Ratios); 55% with certain conditions
- Minimum 600 credit score
- Credit evaluation and income documentation determined by Desktop Underwriter (DU)

Income and assets are fully documented

NOTE: Loans that are eligible for sale to a government-sponsored enterprise (GSE) – the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) – are ineligible for any iQM Series programs. All iQM Agency Plus loans must be run through Fannie Mae's Desktop Underwriter (DU). A copy of the DU Findings must be included in the file. See Underwriting for additional information.

Guideline Overview

Loans meeting the parameters outlined in these guidelines are consistent with the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform Act Ability to Repay. Documentation standards are designed so that loans are made to borrowers who have demonstrated the ability and have the capacity to repay the debt thus satisfying Ability-to-Repay standards. In regards to any underwriting criteria not specifically addressed in this document, Fannie Mae standards apply.

Program Qualifications

This program offers fixed rate and adjustable rate mortgage options for borrowers with jumbo loans and conforming loans that fall just outside the parameters for Qualified Mortgages. Full documentation of income and assets is required. Loans in this program must not be able to qualify for a Fannie Mae DU Approve/Eligible recommendation.

	Alimony/Child Support/Separate Maintenance Payments – When the borrower is required to pay alimony, child support, or maintenance payments under a divorce decree, separation agreement, or any other written legal agreement – and those payments must continue to be made for more than 10 months – the payments must be considered as part of the borrower’s recurring monthly debt obligations. However, voluntary payments do not need to be taken into consideration. (FNMA 3-6-05) Home Equity Lines of Credit (HELOC) – When a borrower has a home equity line of credit (HELOC) that provides for a monthly payment of principal and interest or interest only, the payment on the HELOC must be considered as part of the borrower’s recurring monthly debt obligations. If the HELOC does not require a payment, there is no recurring monthly debt obligation so the lender does not need to develop an equivalent payment amount. Installment Debt – All installment debt that is not secured by a financial asset—including student loans, automobile loans, and home equity loans—must be considered part of the borrower’s recurring monthly debt obligations if there are more than ten monthly payments remaining. Installment loans that are being paid off or paid down to 10 or fewer remaining monthly payments do not need to be included in the borrower’s long-term debt (DTI ratio). However, an installment debt with fewer monthly payments remaining also should be considered as a recurring monthly debt obligation if it significantly affects the borrower’s ability to meet his or her credit obligations. Lease Payments – Lease payments must be considered as recurring monthly debt obligations regardless of the number of months remaining on the lease. This is because the expiration of a lease agreement for rental housing or an automobile typically leads to either a new lease agreement, the buyout of the existing lease, or the purchase of a new vehicle or house. Revolving Charge/Lines of Credit – Revolving charge accounts and unsecured lines of credit are open-ended and should be treated as long-term debts and must be considered part of the borrower’s recurring monthly debt obligations. These trade lines include credit cards, department store charge cards, and personal lines of credit. Equity lines of credit secured by real estate should be included in the housing expense. If the credit report does not show a required minimum payment amount and there is no supplemental documentation to support a payment of less than 5%, the lender must use 5% of the outstanding balance as the borrower’s recurring monthly debt obligation. If a revolving account balance is to be paid off at or prior to closing, a monthly payment on the current outstanding balance does not need to be included in the borrower’s long term debt (DTI ratio). Such accounts do not need to be closed as a condition of excluding the payment from the DTI ratio. Student Loans – If a monthly student loan payment is provided on the credit report, the lender may use that amount for qualifying purposes. If the credit report does not reflect the correct monthly payment, the lender may use the monthly payment that is on the student loan documentation (the most recent student loan statement) to qualify the borrower. If the credit report does not provide a monthly payment for the student loan, or if the credit report shows $0 as the monthly payment, the lender must determine the qualifying monthly payment using one of the options below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the borrower is on an income-driven payment plan, the lender may obtain student loan documentation to verify the actual monthly payment is $0. The lender may then qualify the borrower with a $0 payment. • For deferred loans or loans in forbearance, the lender may calculate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A payment equal to 1% of the outstanding student loan balance (even if this amount is lower than the actual fully amortizing payment), or ○ A fully amortizing payment using the documented loan repayment terms. Open 30-day accounts An open 30-day account may be excluded from debt-to-income ratios so long as borrower has assets to pay the account in full. The verified funds must be in addition to any funds required for closing costs and reserves.
Limitations on Other Real Estate Owned	Loan/Property restrictions per borrower are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Borrowers limited to eight (8) loans with Impac not to exceed $2,000,000. • If borrower only has one (1) loan with Impac, including the subject property, that loan may exceed $2 million (up to the guideline maximum herein). • Borrowers with > 15 financed properties are not eligible for any 2nd home or investment property transactions (purchase, rate/term, or cash-out) • Borrower may have Impac financing on a maximum of 10% of the properties in a PUD or condominium project. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ For projects ≤ 10 total units, financing on a maximum of 1 unit is allowed Impac financing is limited to a maximum overall concentration of 20% in any Florida condominium project.
